Sexual Assault Awareness Month

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month. During this month we engage in education and dialogue aimed at eradicating sexual violence. It is also a time when we hold space for the survivors on Pitt's campus. This is a time when we honor our community members who have experienced trauma. Students, faculty and staff are welcome to attend any events during SAAM, though some content may be directed at specific members of our campus community.

Happy Graduate and Professional Student Appreciation Week!

Please join the Graduate Studies team and the Graduate and Professional Student Government Organization (GPSG) in a week-long celebration of YOU, your successes, and your many contributions to the University and our community during Graduate and Professional Student Appreciation Week (GPSAW). For more information and a schedule of events, please access the GPSAW page.

Deadlines

Don't forget to apply to graduate!

If you are graduating this term, you MUST apply to graduate, which you can do here. Please note that applying has deadlines - if you apply late you will be charged a late fee. If you apply too late, you will need to wait to apply to a future term and will not receive your diploma until after the end of that term!

For those graduating in Spring 2023, the absolute latest deadline is April

1. Since the deadline has passed for Spring 2023, if you have not already applied for Spring 2023 graduation, you will need to apply for Summer 2023 graduation (see below).

For students planning to graduate in Summer 2023, the absolute latest deadline is August 1. If you do not apply by then, you will not be able to apply and get your diploma until the end of December!!!!

For a full list of upcoming deadlines, visit the University's Academic Calendar.
